

Bob Ellis

Bob Ellis has served as a Deputy Bureau Director of the Bureau of Wildlife Resources since November 2010.

He holds a B.S. in Biology from Millersville State College in Pennsylvania and a M.S. in Wildlife Sciences from Virginia Tech.

He has worked for DGIF since July 1992 serving as Assistant Director until becoming Director of the Wildlife Division in 2008.

Bob began his career as an Extension Agent in Buchanan County Virginia.

After a two year stint in coal country, Bob went into his first professional wildlife job as Regional Wildlife Biologist in the Everglades Region with the Florida Game and Fish Commission in 1980.

There he served 11 years and one year as Regional Director in Panama City, Fla. before coming to Virginia.